PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Dear fellow members,

What an eventful past month we have had! I, along with several other board members and SSBA members attended the annual Sandy Springs Festival on September 17th and 18th. Many people visited our booth to inquire about our organization. We gave away SSBA magnets, pens, and of course pocket sized copies of the Constitution. A sincere thank you to all of our volunteers who took time out their weekend to help out with this event. I hope everyone had as much fun as I did. The morning after the Sandy Springs Festival I attended the Bagels & Business event for Sandy Springs Perimeter Chamber, along with Bill Thackston and Joe Nagle. Our organization sponsored this event's breakfast therefore, I was able to make opening remarks and talk about our wonderful organization and our newly improved Website they can visit and how we could be of service to them.

I would also like to announce that our new website is up and running. This is a vast improvement to what it once was, so please visit this site. There is a separate link for the current members to use and change your own profiles and pay your annual dues online. Please, when you have a moment, visit this page and update your information, if necessary.

This month's meeting will again take place at the Taco Mac located in the Prado until and unless we find a more suitable place for our meetings. We have a great speaker coming up this month, Wendell Willard, the city attorney for Sandy Springs and also a representative for District 49 of Fulton County. I hope to see all of you at the meeting on October 13.

Best regards,

Fariba Bayani
